

Mindless Self Indulgence, Mic Commander

When I step up to the mic I show no mercy
When I throw back the junk I show no mercy
When I'm better than your life I show no mercy
When I fall off the back I show no mercy

All I need is a good run
To rock this here beat so I defeat

All I need is a def beat

To rock this, my baby
(something backwards)

Microphone commander

Never hesitating

Death with a record

Here's the invitation

Accept no substitute and no imitation

(something backwards)

(something backwards)

You know I'm in my limo

And you don't give a fuck about me

When I step up to the mic I show no mercy

When I throw back the junk I show no mercy

When I'm better than your life I show no mercy

When I fall off the back I show no mercy

Just let me act a little classy

You can never ever win a battle with me

Into little bitty pieces

That is what you get when you step to me

All I need is a good run

To rock this here beat so I defeat

All I need is a def beat

To rock this, my baby
(something backwards)

Microphone commander

Never hesitating

Death with a record

Here's the invitation

Accept no substitute and no imitation
