

Mindy McCready, Don't Speak

Wind chimes outside my window
Inside two hearts in tempo
Inhibitions slowly let go
We hold on

In a place where the world can't find us
Love takes the wheel and drives us
Nothin but our senses guide us
All night long

Words get in the way
Throw them all away

Don't speak, don't rush
Whisper with your touch
Don't talk, I'll know
When I've reached your soul
Say it all to me
Don't speak

Time moves in a gentle motion
Slow waves on a quiet ocean
We pledge our deep devotion
With a kiss

Your eyes are so revealing
Your fingertips are healing
I've never felt this feeling
Not like this

Please please pull me near
I hear you loud and clear

Don't speak, don't rush
Whisper with your touch
Don't talk, I'll know
When I've reached your soul
Say it all to me
Don't speak

Please please pull me near
I hear you loud and clear

Don't speak, don't rush
Whisper with your touch
Don't talk, I'll know
When I've reached your soul
Say it all to me
Don't speak
