

Mindy McCready, Dream On

where I stand the sun is setting
where you stand the moon is high it's so strange
to be here in the day,
when you're there in the night

wires carry
your voice to me
I can hear you but you're out of reach it's so hard to say goodbye but darlin' when you fall asleep

dream on,
dream on
my love will hold you
so strong,
so real,
so right
I'll be there,
just close your eyes
I am yours,
until the dawn
dream on,
dream on

all the miles stretch
out between us
all these miles I'd walk, I'd crawl just to touch you now but this old world is not that small

so dream on,
dream on
so strong,
so real,
so right
I'll be there,
just close your eyes
I am yours,
dream on

dream on,
dream on
so strong,
so real,
so right
I'll be there,
just close your eyes
I am yours,
I am yours,
I am yours,
dream on,
dream on

dream on,
dream on
