

Mindy McCready, I Love You Too

I wonder why the sky is blue
He said, &quot;I never really thought about it&quot;;
And I said, &quot;Sometimes it's so hard to talk to you&quot;;
He said, &quot;Then why don't you just kiss me, darlin&quot;;
I turned up the radio and sang &quot;keep on rock'n me baby&quot;;
He said, &quot;You know, you really know just how to drive me crazy&quot;;
And I said

&quot;I love you, I hate you
I could never live without you
I adore you, sometimes I wanna floor you
I can't stand to be around you&quot;;, and he said
&quot;Yeah, I know. I love you too&quot;;

His horoscope said he'd meet a sexy brunette
He said, &quot;I can't believe you believe that stuff&quot;;
I said, &quot;Let's quit our jobs and move down to Key West&quot;;
And he said, &quot;Baby, when did you dream that one up?&quot;;
Sometimes you make me so happy I wanna scream and shout it

But you can make me so mad I wanna break everything in this house
And I said

&quot;I love you, I hate you
I could never live without you
I adore you, sometimes I wanna floor you
I can't stand to be around you&quot;;, and he said
&quot;Yeah, I know. I love you too&quot;;

&quot;I love you, I hate you
I could never live without you
I adore you, sometimes I wanna floor you
I can't stand to be around you, but&quot;;

&quot;I love you, I hate you
I could never live without you
I adore you, sometimes I wanna floor you
I can't stand to be around you, but&quot;;
