

Minelli, No Tears

You can lie, lie, lie all you want
And think that you're right, right, right when you're not
But nothing's gon' make me stay, just walk away
'Cuz I got no tears in my eyes

I'm not a puppet on a string for your love
I'm not an angel you can leave in the dust
The things you said, the things you've done
You put me second, but I'm number one

I'm not a phone call at the end of the night
I'm not a devil you can keep on the side
The things you said, the things you've done
You put me second, but I'm number one

You can lie, lie, lie all you want
But nothing's gon' make me stay, just walk away
'Cuz I got no tears in my eyes

You can lie, lie, lie all you want
But nothing's gon' make me stay, just walk away
'Cuz I got no tears in my eyes

No more tears in my eyes, babe
No more tears in my eyes
No more tears in my eyes, babe
No more tears in my eyes

Tears in my eyes, babe
No more tears in my eyes
No more tears in my eyes, babe
No more, no more, no more

I'm not a song you can sing when you're down
I'm not gon' save you, I won't come back around
The things you said, the things you've done
You put me second, but I'm number one

You can lie, lie, lie all you want
But nothing's gon' make me stay, just walk away
'Cuz I got no tears in my eyes

You can lie, lie, lie all you want
But nothing's gon' make me stay, just walk away
'Cuz I got no tears in my eyes

No more tears in my eyes, babe
No more tears in my eyes
No more tears in my eyes, babe
No more tears in my eyes

Tears in my eyes, babe
No more tears in my eyes
No more tears in my eyes, babe
No more, no more, no more
