Miranda Sex Garden, Cover My Face

I know you're watching You know I see My face in your eyes I know you see

As i run blindly From the fear I know's not real Cover my face Do not watch my eyes

Let me hate for you And hate for me My face in your eyes All I can see

As I run blindly From the fear I know's not real Cover my face Do not watch my eyes

As I run freely I will leave your world behind Carry me further Do not see my lie
