

Miranda Sex Garden, Ever And Ever

how can it last for forever again?
what will we do with forever my friend?
ever and ever, and ever again,
for ever and ever, and ever my friend.

is there another place to go?
and is there a place where we can hide?
and is there a place where we can sing?
so is there another place, my friend?

tell me you'll be here forever again,
tell me you'll love me forever, my friend.
ever and ever, and ever again,
for ever and ever, and ever my friend.
