

Miss Conduct, Saviour Self

You take it for granted
You won't understand it
Take it or leave it
Leave the story untold
Make a major departure
You're holding my heart there
Ever tightly
Never gonna let go
Let go
Taken me all my life to believe
I can finish the chapter and leave it
Behind me can't you see
I can take these final steps without you
Screaming out, I'm alone
I can see your heart beating
I'm all over you now
Please try understand this
Make it or break it
You have to be told
My life is in pieces
The light is my saviour
All around me
I'm never gonna let go
Let go
Taken me all my life to believe
I can finish the chapter and leave it
Behind me can't you see
I can take these final steps without you
Screaming out, I'm alone
I can see your heart beating
Screaming out alone I can see your heart,
Beating.
