

Miss Conduct, Six Feet Under

It's hard to paint a picture
When you're already in the frame
Pull the focus closer
And you'll see me there
And you may as well
Bury me now
For I am dying to know
She said don't worry
Cause you look beautiful tonight
Why am I here?
I'm still six feet under
Six feet under
Come and listen to this
I wanna take you somewhere else
It takes two to tango
And now we're dancing with our souls
It never made a difference
That I loved you more than life
Took my breath away
And I knew you were the one
And you may as well
Bury me now
For I am dying to know
She said don't worry
Cause you look beautiful tonight
Why am I here?
I'm still six feet under
Six feet under
Six feet understood.
