

Missy Elliott, Why I Still Love You

i keep coming back to you and I ask myself why
hey...
guess I love that ni too much jus a waste of my time

hummmm...
I go way out of my way ... making you satisfied
but it don't matter boy how hard I try
you don't care how I be feeling inside...

you gon' make me tell you
"kiss my ass goodbye"

why the hell I still love you?
why the hell I still love you, baby?
I feel like I can't trust you and I feel like I can't trust you no, no!

cheating on me
why must you?

hey, cause you do me wrong and you don't do me right
hey!
I'll fight you and your chic n sight

don't play whit me cause baby, I am 'bout that life boy, you know I get jealous and I don't like to share hey, I love yo ass so much til I am losing myself

I done tried and tired
I don't know what to do you walkin' round,

got girls thikin' you cute

I'ma do me
nigga, yo can go and do you better not play me ause you gon' get the boot

why the hell I still love you?
why the hell I still love you, baby?
I feel like I can't trust you
no, no!

why must you?

it don't metter baby
how hard I try
you don't care
how I be feeling inside ...
