

Mitchell Marlow & Siddhartha Menon , Answer

Once upon a time
We had it all
Sitting safe behind our castle walls
Fast forward to the siren in the distance
Getting closer by the minute
Would you stand
And answer to the call

Burn like a fire
Willful and wild
This is the night that you were made for
Don't close your eyes
Safer to stare into the sun
Than to turn away from what you could become

This was once a perfect symphony
Soft to stain like a heartbeat
These notes are distant and sour
Getting finally devoured
So would you stand
Or let the curtains fall

Burn like a fire
Willful and wild
This is the night that you were made for
Don't close your eyes
Safer to stare into the sun
Than to turn away from what you could become

The time has come
To stand and fight
For what you believe
For what you believe
The dark will fall
And we will rise

Burn like a fire
Willful and wild
This is the night you were made for

Burn like a fire
This is the night that you were made for
Don't close your eyes
Safer to stare into the sun
Than to turn away from what you could become

Don't close your eyes
The time has come
To stand and fight
Deconstruct
Reignite
Safer to stare into the sun
