

MIYO, Cool Alone

I must to say
I was fine alone
There was no one left for me thought I was safe guess I shouldn't know you would come eventually every time I close my eyes all these feeling rush in memories flooding
through my mind
and I play them again
tell me, are we out of time or this is over?
so I can move on

I was cool alone
better on my own
why'd you have to go
and ruin everything
I was cool alone
I was cool alone
I was cool alone

I've made mistakes
I won up to them
but you won't up to yours
no chance
no way!
won't fall back again
turn the key
and lock the door
but
memories flooding
through my mind
and I play them again
or this is over?
so I can move on

I was cool alone
better on my own
and ruin everything
I was cool alone
I was cool alone
I was cool alone
