

MØ, Youth Is Lost

Youth is lost, life's a rush
Kiss me here in the dandelions
You're my one true crush, crush
You only get the drama you create yourself, yeah
And you're like poetry, I know your writings well, yeah, sweet (ah, hey, hey, yeah)
Don't you wanna watch us take wings and fly?
Hey, you can't fool me, I've seen dream in your eyes
I've seen a star vision, come and ride with me, yeah
And take me to the sunny side
Youth is lost, life's a rush
Kiss me here in the dandelions
You're my one true crush
Feel my pulse, dangerous
Kiss me here in the dandelions
You're my one true crush, crush
Don't keep me in the dark, play a song for me now
Don't make the autumn wind seem like a warm breeze, yeah, right
The cross you bear is mine to bear as well, you know, yeah
Don't you fetishize it, it'll make it growth
Into star powder, you don't want that, baby
'Cause you're too old for that shit now
I went to the beach, yeah
It was a summer's eve, yeah
And colors, they were deep, yeah, like Ariel, I was speechless
Watching waves crashing
It reminded me of you and Venus in her shell
And then I sang to myself, I sang to myself
Youth is lost, life's a rush
Kiss me amongst dandelions
You're my one true goddess
Feel my pulse, dangerous
Kiss me underneath the dandelions
You're my one true crush, crush
Youth is lost, life's a rush
Kiss me here in the dandelions
You're my one true crush
Feel my pulse, dangerous
Kiss me here in the dandelions
You're my one true crush, crush
