Mob Rules, Seven Seas

Wisdom comes and childhood goes Time goes by, intentions grow

I left my home. I changed the earth with water miles from hometown, left son and daughter

I sailed seven seas I gave my life to the ocean Searched for seven keys On my way to you

I sailed the seven seas I gave my life to the ocean Searched for seven keys On my journey back to you

No horizon, big black holes stormy wind, the sea is cold

I left my past, I choose the truth of water Lost my memories, no son no daughter

I sailed seven seas I gave my life to the ocean Searched for seven keys On my way to you

I sailed the seven seas I gave my life to the ocean Searched for seven keys On my journey back to you

I sailed seven seas I gave my life to the ocean Searched for seven keys On my way to you

I sailed the seven seas I gave my life to the ocean Searched for seven keys On my journey back to you
