

Mobb Deep, Trife Life

Check it out now..

Word up Son, shit is ill kid..

Knahmsayin? Bein that we livin the motherfuckin trife life

Don't have another day right?

It's only right

Let me put you on to what happens Son, never believe this shit

Kick that shit

(Prodigy)

It's just another day, drownin my troubles with a forty

That's when I got the call from this brownskin shorty

She asked me where's my crew at? Said we could do whatever

She got her crew too, and said that we should get together

I said, "Aight -- just call me back in a hour so I can take a shower and gather up the manpower"

Then I hung up the horn

And I thought to myself that it might be on

Cause this trick ain't pick up the phone to call me in years (Why?)

Ever since I left the hoe lonely in tears

Ain't no tellin what her friends puttin up in her ears

Ideas of settin me up, I'm not tryin ta hear

(Check it out, Son) So we take the gats for precautions

Plus this trick live in Brooklyn, home of the coffin

She might got a whole batallion of Bucktowners

Waitin for us to get up off the train and surround us

Or maybe, I'm blowin this shit out of proportion

But this shit do happen, to niggaz very often

So fuck it, a nigga gotta do what he meant to

My crew got my back, fuck the world is my mental

We put together five soldiers, the bitch called

My blood curdled, told me to meet her on Myrtle

Got to the plaza, we're waitin for the G train

We put a plan together, just in case the beef came

Now we Bed Stuy bound

Far from home and on unknown ground

But together we six deep, with fire piece, nuttin sweet

First nigga frontin gettin lifted off his fuckin feet

It took eternity, we reached our destination

My heartbeat is racin like a cardiac patient

We finally got to Myrtle outside the train station

I saw not a soul, told my peoples to be patient

But hold up, thats when a black caravan rolled up

My legs then froze up, I grabbed my pound

Told my man, "Eyes open cause it might go down"

Said he don't like the way the shit is startin to sound

Evey angle of the car was smoked out and tinted

So we couldn't tell if the enemy was in it

It mighta been TNT, I wasn't tryin to wait and see, we jettin thru Marcy cause Dee's ain't baggin me

Word Son, they got us on the run, Dunn, see yo

Chorus:

Check it out, check it out, check it out, yo

Trife life got me thinkin like an animal

No doubt, no doubt, no doubt, no doubt yo

What can kill you is what you don't know

(Havoc)

OK check it, you're on your way to your girl's crib

But the bitch live in the 'Bridge

You ain't really sweatin it, cause little do you know

The niggaz in the 'Bridge be settin it

You thought you was safe and tried to walk the backstreets without heat on the 41st Side (settin it) of 12th Street

The cyber-niggaz don't give a fuck
Decide well if you come thru frontin, kid you gettin bucked
On your way, to apartment 3A with a phat herringbone, let him slide, no days
Son get the heat, cause I'm about to stick em
(Fuck that shit, yo if that nigga front, yo hit him!)
Aight bet, so just hold it down while I cock back the long three pound
You're upstairs bonin, not knowin that I'm scheamin
Just the right time kid, it's twelve in the evenin
You're leavin out the buildin as you kiss your girl goodbye
Thought you was safe and got caught by surprised
"What's goin on?", as I reply,
"Shut the fuck up and don't make this 'to another homicide"
He tried to play tough so I put one in his brain
Even though I took his life, all I wanted was the chain
Come through truck without heat, how you figure?
When you in the projects keep your fingers on the trigger
But fuck that we're juxin, if you got what we like you gets tooken
Put you on your back, send you on your way, yo good lookin
Now be catchin the cap that holes in ya Lewis in Brooklyn
Gettin to' up from the flo' up, hit the dress sto' up
Got the 80-0 in case a nigga wanna roll up
Get'cha motherfuckin shit swoll up
Now it's back to Queens to serve fiends
Makin G's by any means, my eyes on my enemies
Sippin Hennessey, with my mind on some crime shit
One-time searchin me but never ever find shit
It's the everyday, get the loot then breeze
Though my goal is to leave outta state, push ki's
But all this bullshit holdin me down, I can't leave
Fuck a 9-to-5, I get the loot with ease
Don't even need a degree to earn a six-digit figure
I get mines slingin on the corner with my niggaz
Pullin the trigger when the drama appears
Cause that nigga worse enemy is FEAR
So yo....

Chorus

No doubt, so what can kill you is what you don't know..
(ad lib to outro)
