Moby, James Bond Theme (Live)

(includes lyrics from "bring the noize" by public enemy) (this changes from show to show, but it's usually along these lines)

Now let it lift you, oh!

one love will one love will one love can take you make you feel alive and whole why give it up why tear it up one love will my love will my love will make you feel alive enough to let go

oh
the death row
once again you feel like the brothers know once again, back is the incredible the rhyme animal the unforgetable d public enemy number one five-oh said "freeze" and I got numb can't I tell 'em that I really never had a gun but the wax that the terminator x spun now

so soft so alive my dear so good so close so real

this love

whoa love!

wanna give it up lets turn it loose

(sample) "bond, james bond."
