

Mocca, Secret Admirer

Oh, secret admirer
When you're around the autumn feels like summer
How come you're always messing up the weather
Just like you do to me..
My Silly admirer
How come you never send me bouquet of flowers?
It's whole lot better than disturbing my slumber
If you keep knocking at my door

Last night in my sleep
I dreamt of you riding on my counting sheep
Oh how you're always bouncing
Oh you look so annoying..(please!)

Dear handsome admirer
I always think that you're a very nice fellow
But suddenly you make me feel so mellow
Every time you say: HELLO!

And everytime you look at me
I wish you vanish and dissapear into the air
How come you keep on smiling?
Oh! you look so annoying..(not again!)

My secret admirer
I never thought my heart could be so yearning
Please tell me now why try to ignore me
cause I do miss you so
My silly admirer (cause I do miss you so..)
My handsome admirer (cause I do miss you so..)
Dear secret admirer
cause I do miss you so
