

Model Photographer, Cassette Tape

I wish
I could
Rewind this cassette tape,
'Cause then
I could
Go back and erase what happened
Erase what happened.

Maybe i could
Destroy this stereo
It stays on repeat
Plays back all the things that happened
the things that happened.

Just close your eyes and stay here.
Just close your eyes and listen to the air.
Just close your eyes and stay here.
Just close your eyes and listen.

I wish I could
rewind this cassette tape.
'Cause then i could go back and
erase what happened,
erase what happened.
erase what happened.

S'close your eyes and stay here.
Just close your eyes and listen to the air.
S'close your eyes and stay here.
Just close your eyes and listen...
