

Modern Day Escape, Beauty Killed The Beast

We are all dreaming kids,
Stuck in a reality that is made fake, for a real so.
I've got a tale for you,
Don't do exactly what I do,
Never saying goodbye.
We've got our chance (we've got our chance),
Cut and roll the dice.
We've got our chance,
Cut and roll the dice.
Second star on the left,
Straight on till morning.
Stitch me up inside, I lost my shadow,
I've got so much, left to write,
My pages still left blank and white.
Beauty has killed the beast in me.
A thimble means a kiss, a kiss for you,
Come on Wendy fly with me tonight.
Our time is gone, the clocks past ten,
And I'm here to see you off,
It's time to hit the sky again.
You left me here,
And now I care for you my darling,
I can't believe you let me go.
Second star on the left,
Straight on till morning.
Stitch me up inside, I lost my shadow,
I've got so much, left to write,
My pages still left blank and white.
Beauty has killed the beast in me.
Killed the beast in...
Killed the beast in...
Killed the beast in...
I kill my enemies,
Turn them to memories.
I kill my enemies,
Turn them to memories...
So I sailed across this empty sea,
Shedding the blood of my enemies.
Sailing my ship into a shallow grave,
But I won't stop until this endings made.
Lock inside a travesty,
Hiding all alone.
No will ever find me,
'Til my time has come.
123 now let's go!
Beauty...
Killed the beast in side.
Of your...
Heart its...
Time spent...
I can see...
Inside of your...
Heart.
