

Modern English, Carry Me Down slipping through the sand and the sand through your fingertips silence was the fear and the fear knew me all too well waiting at the edge of the sea gazing at horizons quite naturally there's something in the air but I know it can't carry me you know I won't believe you you know I won't believe in time for now there's something in the air but I know it won't carry me down the grains of sand which grace the land, warm against the sun the calming sea holds mystery pushing down and down riding with the tide

the sun ? me

there's something in the air but I know it can't carry me

carry me down

questions left unsaid but instead turn their backs on me silence was the key and the sea learned its lesson well waiting on the edge of time the world is on my doorstep

there's something in the air but I know it can't carry me
you know I won't believe in time for now
there's something in the air but I know it can't carry me

there's something in the air but I know it won't carry me down
there's something in the air but I know it won't carry me down
there's something in the air but I know it won't carry me down (you know I can't I won't I can't I won't)
there's something in the air but I know it won't carry me down (you know I can't believe it)
there's something in the air but I know it won't carry me down (you know I can't I won't I can't I won't)
there's something in the air but I know it won't carry me down (you know I can't believe it)
