

Modern English, Dance of Devotion (A Love Song)

you didn't know how much I wanted you
you didn't know how much I needed you shadows on the wall, staring from the bags pent-up frustration, failed to explode got a tear in the eye -- you didn't want me

you didn't know how much I wanted you
you didn't know how much I needed you how much I longed for you and from my head to my heart to the space above the door
you didn't know how much I wanted you
you didn't know how much I needed you

you didn't know?
you didn't know?
you didn't know?
you didn't know?
you didn't know?
you didn't know?
you didn't know?
you didn't know?
