

Modern English, Life's Rich Tapestry

Woven from a very pretty mouth,
oh yeah,
All across the world,
The skin and landscape,
I need to quench this thirst cause I'm dry,
Oh, so dry,
Come on and lead me to the water.

(Chorus)
I believe in life's rich tapestry,
And all it gives to me,
I believe in life's rich tapestry,
And what it takes from me.

Could it be a saint or just a sin,
Something to lose yourself in, yeah,
The clothes that you wear,
Or the cross that you bear,
Oh, Lord,
A chance to feel a part of life.

Chorus

With a heart that hangs oh so low,
The half moon glow,
Tonight, today in so many ways,
Here we go.

Chorus x2

Takes from me x3.
