

Modern Life Is War, Yesterday's Trash

Another new beginning:
Down the fucking drain!

Screaming "never again"
As we watch it wash away!
Yeah!

God Damn!
Disappointment sure does have a way
Of adding up

But it's all a matter of perspective,
So we'd better start looking up
(Don't give up!)

Someone said these are our glory days
So let's do our best
To beat the misery that comes
With being young
And (fucked up)!

(Time to rise up!) (x3)

Before yesterday's trash
Becomes tomorrow's hard luck!
