Modern Life Is War, Yesterday's Trash

Another new beginning: Down the fucking drain!

Screaming "never again" As we watch it wash away! Yeah!

God Damn! Disappointment sure does have a way Of adding up

But it's all a matter of perspective, So we'd better start looking up (Don't give up!)

Someone said these are our glory days So let's do our best To beat the misery that comes With being young And (fucked up)!

(Time to rise up!) (x3)

Before yesterday's trash Becomes tomorrow's hard luck!
