

Modern Talking, Romantic Warriors

In the nights of lost and found
Many strangers are around
You're nobody until someone will love you
You can't make it on your own
When you standing there alone
Many heartaches keep the world on turning
'Cause you are fooled by your feeling
You can pay the price of love
Give me your hand , my love
Give me your heart

Oh oh oh
Let me be your lover
You're undercover, yeah tonight
Oh oh oh
Let me be your lover
Romantic warrior, yeah tonight

Oh oh oh
We are all romantic warriors
Fighting for your love
Oh oh oh
We are all romantic warriors
Fighting for your heart
We're fighting for your love

Legends have a broken heart
There's someone who tore apart
Oh, there must be more to life than this, babe
Idol love can't last through years
How can love, babe, last through years?
You're surrounded, baby, oh by strangers
Come let me be your hero
And I'm fighting for your love
Give me your hand, my love
Give me your heart
