

Moe Bandy, All I Can Handle At Home

Came in here to do some drinkin' not what you're thinkin'
A little relaxin's all I got on my mind
But I tell by the way you're lookin' at me you are lonely
Honey you picked up a wrong man this time

Cause I got all I can handle at home
I got me a lovin' machine won't leave me alone
It wouldn't be any help to you even if I wanted to
I got all I can handle at home
( steel - guitar - harmonica )
I don't mean you're not invitin' it couldn't be excitin'
I'm sure you'd be able light the fire
But I'm sure of information cause I've got the situation
From now on you'll cumulate desire

Cause I got all I can handle at home...
Cause I got all I can handle at home...
I got all I can handle at home
