

Moe Bandy, Ghost Of A Chance

In the back of my mind you're calling my name
I just can't believe that your feelings have changed
Without you I know my future is past
So I keep holding on to a ghost of a chance

In all my dreams you're all I can see
So I keep believing you'll come back to me
My dreams in your memories are all that I have
So I'm still holding on to a ghost of a chance

You said goodbye our love was wrong
I'll go on hoping till all hope is gone
My dreams and your memories are all that I have
So I'm still holding on to a ghost of a chance
( steel )
My dreams in your memories...
