

Moe., Rise

Someone took the bottle left it back inside
On the bottom of the back of the shelf
Another two stop to go inside
It's making me think of myself

(I said) I don't wanna wait
This out anymore
Keep standing
Standing
Stop!

Time tick-tock the clock is back
I think I'm going to to lose it this time
Teapot screaming at the top of its lungs
That somebody better move it

(I said) I don't wanna wait
Outside anymore
Keep standing
Standing
Stop!

Now it's on the rise
Why don't you tell me?
I don't want to wait

(I said) Now it's on the rise,
Why don't you tell me?
I don't want to wait.

(I said) Now it's on the rise,
Why don't you tell me?
I don't want to wait.

(I said) Now it's on the rise,
Why don't you tell me?
I don't want to wait.

Electricity is shaking the leaves
The crowd is buzzing like bees
Blades of grass on the back of my neck
And the whispering in the breeze

(I said) I don't wanna wait
Outside anymore
Keep standing
Standing
Stop!

(Chorus)

Someone took the bottle left it back inside
On the bottom of the back of the shelf
Another two stop to go inside
It's making me think of myself

(I said) I don't wanna wait
Outside anymore
Keep standing
Standing
Stop!

(Chorus 2x)
