</lyrics>

if it is to fall to the invitation of deep sleep the broken heart will disappear into the wandering darkness reclaiming the lost memory that had forsaken me

having dreamt of the two at that time ahh with the beloved you dancing within a dream, to that day one can never return

if it is to fall to the invitation of the sweet fragrance the bewildered heart will drown in the shadow of that instant anything and everything has not changed now it is a thought toward you

ahh with you my beloved

seeing in the dream , at that place at that time
making a vow within a dream, in that day one is no longer lost feeling the warmth of being with you once again
