

Molly Hatchet, Sundance

It was the devil's reign that called him
As he was runnin' from the law
He had him in an awful strange hold
It was the worst kind of them all
Then he took him down below
And what a wonderous sight did he behold
And as the devil spit into the sun
Amazing things had begun.
He woke up and had him a feelin'
A feelin' he could do no wrong
His hands were faster, his eyes were sharp
His body never felt so strong
Nobody's gonna cross his path
No one could gun him down
Because the devil was in his eye
The devil had come to town

Chorus:

Sundance blazin' baby
Sundance blazin' baby
And now his days are numbered
He's lookin' up towards the sun
His eyes were weak, his hands were slow
And that meant sundance gun
Because the devil took him down below
A wonderous sight did he behold
And now the devil had come back to town
To take sundance soul.

Chorus:

Sundance blazin' baby
Sundance blazin' baby.
