

Monday Morning, With You

So undeserving from where I've fallen short
Still You look at me with unrelenting love
I tremble at the sight of Your face
My soul is awakened by You

CHORUS

Your Love makes me high
Just You and I, Your love it makes me high
Underneath Your light but somehow still so high
So indescribable to feel the touch of Your hand
So undeniable the feeling I can't understand
You hold me here inside Your arms I never want to leave
So all I know is I need You so, so don't let go
With You I'm never alone
You're all that I'll become
So let Your light shine through it all
This love is unbelievable
