Moneen, Bleed And Blister (Version 2)

You said you'll dream, you wanna be you still can't bring yourself to try you want to die and you want more of these things to help them set all these people you once had while they watch you, they're haunting you go on kid, don't let them stop you the door's still locked but i'm here listening you said you'll dream you wanna be and you won't try you try you'll fail you'll wanna see how you'll never be wait, but you won't try wait, but you won't die

I can't take this any further you got some suggestions? im listening is this speaking loud?, we must whisper they might hear well just rip off all their ears and stab their eyes out, while their not watching go on kid, don't let them stop you (don't let them stop you) we'll bust this door down then they'll listen im weak. im numb when i wanna be but i won't try i tried i failed i wanna see how i'll never be wait, but i wont try wait, but i wont die i'm strong i'm where I wanna be but I won't try they'll try, they'll fail, they'll wanna see how they'll hurt me wait, but I won't try wait, wait, no I don't wanna die
