

Moneen, Sharks In Danger

As life hangs beside me
I gather all that I can
You were never one for confrontation
And now it all lies all in your hands

Your hands...

Who will be there to tell
Me how stupid I am? (4x)

Who will keep me from lashing out? (lashing out)
Anxiety chokes me like razor wire (razor wire)
Who will keep me from lashing out? (lashing out)
Anxiety chokes me like razor wire (razor wire)

Now it's all in your hands, in your hands (x4)

razor wire... (to fade)
