

Moneen, This Is All Bigger Than Me

hey how are you,
i think i might explode, i found a box, which said "open and choose", you'll find 2 notes, 1 says "you might succeed", the other reads, "you'll ruin everything";

you want them to like all the things you've said, you're still talking backwards and off your head,
been running in circles for way too long,
i hope your corporation dies.

i'm sorry for things, sorry for what's been said, i watched them all,
while they burned it down

you want them to like all the things you've said,
you're still talking backwards and off your head,
been running in circles for way too long,
i hope your corporation dies.

you want them to like all the things you've said,
you're still talking backwards and off your head,
been running in circles for way too long,
i hope your corporation dies.

i hope it dies,
i can't wait to be there to see you burn
