

Moneen, Why Bother Wondering When Wonders

I am scared as I can be, to where I can't breathe.

I am lonely as I can be,

lonely as I will let me be here alone with you.

With you.

I wished too hard, too much, too fast. I can't believe in...

And it hurt too much, and stopped me just right where I was.

I am lonely as I can be lonely as I will let me be here alone with you.

With you

Sitting here wondering why I'm sitting here alone once again
