

Moneybrother, No, Damn! I Don't Love You

No, no, damn don't love you

Fell just once
I'm not falling anymore

No, no, damn I don't love you
Fell just once
It's true, but not anymore

But a night like this it's hard to sleep
While the sky rests up above
There is nothing left to do

You ought to be here to

No, no, damn, don't love you
Fell just once
I'm not falling anymore

A shame to sleep a night like this
When the stars are shining through
Oh so clear, I see

You ought to be with me

Long, long time
Long, long time

The stars - they will shine
Lover of mine

No, no, damn don't love you
You ought to be here to - there's nothing left to do
