

Moneybrother, Reconsider Me

Hall, ja

I see, it's fine

You're somebody else's little girl now, and will never be mine

But please give me a minute, let me get through to you

I will continue to call you repeatedly till you do

Refr:

Summer nights you know what we do

We're just keeping it tight, simple as that

When in dark outside, holding me down for delight

And we could do it all night long..

..Reconsider me baby, c'mon

Girl, you makin a terrible, stupid mistake

Hangin around with that guy ain't right

I'm for real, he's fake

I know that signal, that's a call on the other line

And your boyfriend would sure check that out but I'm not that kind
