

Monika Ferens, Bring To Life

Isolated from society
On holy road to misery
Empty as the world that daily takes your life
Is this what you wanted?
Hold on to me
Break the wall and breathe
Cause no one will bring you to life
Since when did you play?
You think its so easy to run away?
Its like what goes up its always got to fall
Is it really what you wanted, honey?
But you can always hold on to me
To beware cause you see
Even I cant bring you to life
Dont live without warning
What did you think?
Its a line you cant even try to cross
Although nothing Im saying is ever good enough
My intrusion aint enough
Though you can always hold on to me
It aint up to me
Am I able to bring you to life
Cause no one will bring you to life
Even I cant bring you to life
Its like what goes up its got to fall...
