

Monika Ferens, Disappear

Ive been walking this endless path coated by the dark
There were no signposts to lead me back home
All these bends mislead to nowhere
And Im lost in the middle of the highway
I run with all my strenght but Im not strong enough
To cope with this loneliness
I stumble and I fall
I stumble and I fall
Catch me when I fall
The abyss is so near
I fall and I disappear
Take a look at your own path and did you walk it right
Cause the holes below can never give you rest
The lamps rarely gave consolation
Stubbornly I try to find myself on this way
And the forest around bit hands reaching for the sky
Begging God for salvation
I stumble and I fall
I stumble and I fall
Catch me when I fall
The abyss is so near
I fall and I disappear
And the path still goes on...
