

Monika Ferens, Gone

I am like the dead one in a fight
Because I can do nothing right
In mirror I stick out my tongue
Like it's not me only someone
How can you push me aside?
How can you feel pity to me?
I've digested another poison
But dont give me next

[Chorus]

Through the luckiest years
I fought with these spiders
Being at once a coward and the fighter
Kiss my lips
Lay next to me
Or be gone, gone
Is it possible to love the beast that I am?
Propose toasts for needles sympathy?
Don't you cry, don't you mourn now
Why don't you give a support, my love?
How can you push me aside?
How can you feel pity to me?
What goes around comes around
Kill my fears I'll kill yours, boy

[Chorus]

Gone, gone, hey, heya, gone
If you're here only for company
Having nothing to say
So be with me or just cast me away
Kiss my lips
Lay next to me
Or be gone, gone, gone, gone
Gone, gone hey, heya, yeah, gone
Hey, hey, hey, hey, gone
