

Monika Ferens, Heaven Help Me

Building brick wall around me
To not to ruin my sacrifice for him
Im dying though I dont live for you
Heaven help me!
Heaven help me!
Heaven help me!
I pray for him, just for a misearable care
But the pain before the rejection is stronger
Im aside and I scream that Im here
The limit of my endurance is unavoidable
Im dying though hes not worth this
Heaven help me!
Heaven help me!
Heaven help me!
Hes got everything I hate in a man
Spoiled, wicked addition for a smile
I have your name scribbled with blood on the well
I wont erase it
The phenomen of my suffering
The puzzle without one part
But after all hes a part of my life 4x
Im your slave, youre the Lord of Life and Death
The curse of big feeling, the day of my last breathe
I exist for my needs, I need you
I hate you for your existing, please, walkaway
But after all hes a part of my life 4x
Heaven help me 4x
