

Monika Ferens, Indifference

Hes beautiful from outside
But Im afraid its only his better incarnation
His voice is captivating
But thats only my nightmares recolection
(Yeah)

When he goes thru the corridor
Breathing becomes such a complication
And anytime I see or feel him
My life is such an aggravation

[Chorus]

Indifference - I need you cause hes making me weak
Indifference - you make it bitter cause hes tasting too sweet
Indifference youre the bandage and my heart starts to bleed
Youre my pill for my disease

I wish I could resist you

I said I dont love you but Im a professional liar

He never was my type

But does it matter if his presence gets me higher?

(higher and higher)

Its beyond my comprehension

Cause his style leaves a lot to be desired

No baby we just wouldnt work out

If love is a job then were both fired

[Chorus]

Indifference to bring me to life

Indifference to keep me in the game

[Chorus 2x]
