

Monika Ferens, Outstretched Arms

Be with me to save myself
If you leave you'll have me on your conscience
My love, it's not difficult to die
But it's uneasy to live without anyone
The horizon feels so far away
Just like you when I need you the most
Hear me screaming, calling your name
My arms outstretched awaiting you
They can say I'm crazy
But desire makes people act so foolishly
I'll believe in all your stories
But release me from my uncertainty
Maybe today we'll find the light
And nothing will disturb us tonight
Hear me screaming, calling your name
My arms outstretched awaiting you
[Choir]
It's raining and there's no shelter to hide
Why can't you come to me to give me a sun?
It's raining and there's no shelter to hide
Why can't you come to me to give me a sun?
Hear me screaming, calling your name
My arms outstretched awaiting you
Hear me screaming, calling your name
My arms outstretched awaiting you
My arms outstretched awaiting you 5x
