

Monika Ferens, Signs

Its quarter to midnight
And I try to write
Cause I feel I that need to describe a stuff
Lots of things happen
In my short life
Which situation should I describe first?
Right now things feel so right
But my future seems to stay unknown
It makes me ill
God give me signs tonight
I hate to fight with the dust in my eyes
Please let me know

[Chorus]

Another day has just began
Where will I go today?
Who will I meet, will I cry?
Will I even be able to survive?
Who will kill my loneliness?
Did I deserve this guys kiss?
God let me know who I am?
Will I change or I stay the same?
My mother fallen asleep
Its already two a.m
I still try to describe this who I am today
This selfish need
Waits to find the speed
Ill find the way and wont be lost again
God do I lead my life right?
After cruel despair and unfair fights?
I dont really know
Is anything here fine?
I hate not knowing give me signs tonight
Please let me know

[Chorus]

Right now things seem so right
But my future seems to stay unknown
God give me signs, yeah

[Chorus 2x]
