

Monika Ferens, The Cynical Time

Im a desire interpretation
Youre gonna see how it hurts
When heart hurts like bleeding finger after hitting the wall
Tears like the lead
But your eyes could be heavier
I almost got you when the time decided to stay cynical
Three talks and I thought I wouldnt be choosy
Too bad you werent thinking this way of me
Someone else gets your graces and Ill get regret
Will I even forget?

[Chorus]

No, no, no, no
Ive never been confidence about myself
No, no, no, no
Never thought it would be easy to get my man
Baby dont think so
No, no, no, no, no
I knew it all but my body kept losing control
No, no, no, no
But the time decided to stay cynical
I thought you were mine
I knew it from the day weve met
Then I saw you with the girls and I called them the threat
I failed but Ive still denied
Now Im lying dead on the ground
Cause I put my life into you now youre gone as my life
7 months left and I still cant make friend of you
Now I dont even try to make you fall in love too
Someone else gets your graces and Ill get regret
I wanna forget, but I cannot forget

[Chorus]

I wish I could make you regret of losing me
Instead of believing love comes so easily
I wish I could make you regret of losing me
Baby I wish the time wasnt cynical

[Chorus]
