

Monkey Swallows The Universe, Matterhoney

Well sometimes he just stays in and he might want some lovin'
And then sometimes he just takes off for a while

And she says:

What's the matter, baby? Oh don't you want it?
What's the matter, darlin? You know I got it
What's the matter, sugar? I want it want it!
What's the matter, honey?

It's his fault that the dog's dead but it's still sleeping in her bed
And now he's taken to dancin' all the time

And she says:

What's the matter, baby? Oh don't you want it?
What's the matter, darlin? You know I got it.
What's the matter, sugar? I want it want it!
What's the matter, honey?

His shoes are on fire and his hair is a mess
Sometimes he's joking but only in jest
She keeps on talking, she's never impressed any time

And he says:

What's the matter, baby? Oh don't you want it?
What's the matter, darlin? You know I got it.
What's the matter, sugar? I want it want it!
What's the matter, honey?

What's the matter, baby? Oh don't you want it?
What's the matter, darlin? You know I got it.
What's the matter, sugar? I want it want it!
What's the matter, honey?
