

Monoral, Pocketful Of Joy

Everytime you think of something
I'm waiting there
I'm always ready for you
No matter what

Every single move you make
Every single choice you make is right
Cause I made them for you

Can you see them falling?
I can see them falling for you
Can you hear them crawling?
I can hear them crawling after you

I've got a pocketful of joy
I've got a pocketful of what you need

Everytime you think of something
I'm waiting there
I'm always ready for you
No matter what

Every single move you make
Every single choice you make is right
Cause I made them for you

Can you feel them dying?
I can feel them dying for you
Can you hear them crying?
I can hear them crying over you

I've got a pocketful of joy
I've got a pocketful of what you need

Everytime you think of something
I'm waiting there
I'm always ready for you
No matter what

Every single move you make
Every single choice you make is right
Cause I made them for you

Everytime you think of something
I'm waiting there
I'm always ready for you
No matter what

Every single move you make
Every single choice you make is right
Cause I made them for you
(Just for you)
