

Monoral, So Long

So easy to say, but how could I let you know?
If you only could wait, I'd tell you how things went wrong...
Is it the same thing for you

So long, so long...
I'm always sleeping when it all goes out.
So long, so long...
I'm always sleeping when it all goes out.

When I heard that I'll be awake,
When everything goes out.

You take it away, the hatred I find before.
If I was to ask for the time to make it right,
It'd be the same thing for you.

So long, so long...
I'm always sleeping when it all goes out.
So long, so long...
I'm always sleeping when it all goes out.
So long, so long...
I'm always sleeping when it all goes out.
So long, so long!...
I'm always sleeping when it all goes out...
So long...
So long...
So long, yeah...

Sooooooooooooooooooooo long...
So so so long...
