

Monoral, This Band Has Not Begun

Of all the games
It's all the same
That kills me again
And all the time
I hate to say
The blames on you

Of all the words
And kindness spent
Reminds me again
Of all the time
I felt and cared
To see the side of you

I've died today
I broke the rules
And changed my name
I hate to say
It's over
Over and over
