

Monrose, Strike the match (album version)

Strike it

Bahar

Pretty baby with the blue jeans on

You've been staring at me all night long

I know you want it and you know it's wrong

But you don't worry about a thing do ya?

Senna

I feel you swearing at me from over there

I see the girl you're with but you don't care

Acting like I'm shy but boy you best beware

I can light your match and start a fire in here

Ref:

I know you want it

I know you need it

And how I'm feeling

I really, really, really wanna

Strike the match

Strike strike the match

Strike the match

Strike strike your match

I know you want it

I know you need it

And how I'm feeling

I really, really, really wanna

Strike the match

Strike strike the match

Strike the match

Strike, strike your

Mandy

Now I don't mind if we doocee doo

Do a little dance to service your ego

But I ain't tryin' to take out that door

You gotta tell your girl to leave, oh yeah

Senna

Don't mean to interrupt a perfect date

But I need a man who only spins one plate

Flames are getting higher and they just won't wait

Boy I know you're thirsty come and get your milkshake

Ref:

I know you want it

I know you need it

And how I'm feeling

I really, really, really wanna

Strike the match

Strike strike the match, yeah

Strike the match

Strike strike your match, ohhh

I know you want it

I know you need it

And how I'm feeling

I really, really, really wanna

Strike the match

Strike strike the match

Strike the match

Strike, strike your

Come on and

The match

Strike the match
